

Minister of Sports and Tourism Sergei Kovalchuk congratulated everyone on the Independence Day of the Republic of Belarus

On behalf of the Ministry of Sports and Tourism, and myself, I congratulate all industry workers, athletes, coaches and veterans on the Independence Day of the Republic of Belarus! On this bright July day, we remember those who brought peace and tranquility to our land with a feat of arms. Continuing the glorious traditions, our generation is building a strong and prosperous Belarus.

Continuing the glorious traditions, our generation is building a strong and prosperous Belarus.

Independence Day unites everyone who honors the glorious history of their Motherland and believes in its worthy future, is the embodiment of heroism, resilience, greatness of the spirit of the people, a symbol of unity.

On this festive day, accept the most sincere wishes of health, peace, prosperity and success in our creative work for the benefit of our native Belarus.

Kovalchuk S.M.

Minister of Sports and Tourism of the Republic of Belarus