March 22 is the Memorial Day for the victims of the Khatyn tragedy and the burned Belarusian villages.

The staff of the State Institution “Belsportobespechenie” together with the delegation of the Ministry of Sports and the sports community of Belarus took part in laying flowers, honoring the memory of the victims of the Khatyn tragedy.

On this day, the whole of Belarus unites in a commemorative vigil, remembering the residents of the village of Khatyn, who were driven into a barn and burned by the punishers. In 1943, 149 people, including 75 children, lost their lives in a fire.

According to the data obtained during the investigation of the criminal case of genocide, 288 villages in Belarus shared the fate of Khatyn. At least 12,348 settlements were burned down by the Nazis in whole or in part.

In BSUPC passed a meeting of the Minister of Sports and Tourism with first-year students

1st September, in honor of the start of the new academic year, the Minister of Sports and Tourism of Belarus Sergei Kovalchuk visited the institution “Belarusian State University of Physical Education” and met with students.

The meeting began with a solemn speech by Sergei Mikhailovich:

“I would like to wish the young guys to be true patriots of their country, sensitively absorb everything that the teachers here pass on to you. Great sportsmen came out of these walls of our illustrious educational institution, who proudly carried the banner of Belarusian sports at many competitions and arenas. Happy holiday and a fruitful school year!”

Then the rector of BSUPC Sergei Repkin delivered parting words.

“I would very much like that upon graduation from our institution, many of you will be included in the annals of our university as renowned specialists in your field. Be happy and good luck in your studies.”

After the end of the solemn line, the Minister of Sports and Tourism, together with students and faculty, attended a history lesson “Historical memory – the road to the future” from the President of the Republic of Belarus Alexander Lukashenko in video format.

On the Day of Knowledge in all schools and universities of the country, the topic of the first lesson was devoted to historical memory.
